Status

2007 proposed expansion plan adds 34 acres west of existing lease area that includes a 5-acre boat storage facility, 30 campsites, a pavillion, and hiking trails. An environmental review is being conducted to evaluate potential impacts associated with the proposed expansion and related activities.

Description

A site containing approximately 39.6 acres of federal land has been awarded under the name of Scales Pointe for development and operation of a commercial concession facility for recreational use by the general public. 2007 site improvements include bank stabilization, roadway repair, restaurant restoration, and new construction of docks, parking areas, and a basketball court. 2009 development will focus on upgrading the existing marina facilities to provide sales and service for area boaters. Proposed future development includes new construction of additional docks, parking areas, and campsites.
