Comment: Many people (myself included) do not have time to read this publication. Right now bathroom breaks are the only real chance to see articles of interest. This publication is a GREAT way to increase District awareness, connectedness, and morale. Yet there is no time or funding for this. It would be so great to be encouraged by senior leadership to spend perhaps 30 min a week (or even per pay period) down in the library reading up on district news (SitReps, SigActs and Tower Times) - and not have to worry about being scolded by direct supervisors for charging to overhead. I'm not sure if this could be done, but it would increase District awareness and employee morale.

1. What format do you prefer the Tower Times?

As above plus a quarterly print publication

Comment: Not sure if quarterly printed publications are the right answer but I do think the District needs a print format of the Tower Times. Mainly because some people may read things better on hardcopy.

2. The Tower Times (online and print) is a reliable source of information?

Neutral

Comment: There could be more project and program information to help inform the workforce about all the projects taking place in the district.

3. I like the information the Internet publication, the Tower Times Online, offers.

Neutral

Comment: I would like to see a monthly feature focusing on developing leadership or some other career development section.

4. The Tower Times Online has successfully been developed into an "information gateway," which provides access to information of interest to District employees.

Neutral

Comment: At times I feel like the online version of the Tower Times is cluttered and very hard to find exactly what you want. I think better organization of user navigation would really make it a successful information gateway.

5. The Tower Times (online and print) should be used as a key source for improving communication within the District.

Strongly Agree

Comment: What a good way to share information with fellow employees. The executive leadership should use the Tower Times to communicate goals and direction.

6. The Tower Times (online and/or print) offers a balanced amount of information (i.e. news and information from a wide range of the District).

1. What format do you prefer the Tower Times?

As a regularly updated online and monthly print publication

Comment: I think the monthly print is only necessary during mmonths which have several exciting things happening. Not sure how you'd regulate that though. Quarterly seems awfully distant.

2. The Tower Times (online and print) is a reliable source of information?

Strongly Agree

3. I like the information the Internet publication, the Tower Times Online, offers.

Strongly Agree

4. The Tower Times Online has successfully been developed into an "information gateway," which provides access to information of interest to District employees.

Strongly Agree

5. The Tower Times (online and print) should be used as a key source for improving communication within the District.

Strongly Agree

6. The Tower Times (online and/or print) offers a balanced amount of information (i.e. news and information from a wide range of the District).

Agree

7. The Tower Times (online and/or print) features the right amount of District Headquarters information and news.

Agree

8. The Tower Times (online and/or print) features the right amount of information and news from field sites.

Strongly Agree

9. Do you work in the District Headquarters complex or at another District location? (This information will be used to determine if we're meeting the information needs of all District employees)

I work in the Clock Tower complex

10. Additional Comments?

Mark does a great job with this and I wish to see it continue in the future.

10. Additional Comments?

One bit of information that is rarely seen either on the Ranger's website (L&D 15 Visitor Center) or in the Tower Times, online or print, is announcements of presentations at Firsherman's Corner or Thomson Causeway. Apparently the only way one hears about this is through the newspaper.

1. What format do you prefer the Tower Times?

As a regularly updated online publication only

Comment: Online is good but I need an email reminder with a link to remember to go look at it. Also, I have noticed that when I have followed the link there is maybe two new stories and then all the old stuff still there. The online should be just like a print version, just the stories for that issue. If a person wants to look at previous issues, then there should be a button for that.

2. The Tower Times (online and print) is a reliable source of information?

Neutral

Comment: If I have time I look at it. The articles are kind of light and don't have much info that really is applicable to my job which is ok other than when I get busy I am likely to delete and not look at the latest stories.

3. I like the information the Internet publication, the Tower Times Online, offers.

Neutral

Comment: It seems the Times has longer articles and fewer whereas I prefer shorter articles and more of them.

4. The Tower Times Online has successfully been developed into an "information gateway," which provides access to information of interest to District employees.

Neutral

Comment: I just don't see the Times as an information gateway. It seems to just be a neighborly lighter information sort of thing.

5. The Tower Times (online and print) should be used as a key source for improving communication within the District.

Disagree

Comment: Reading the Times is an option and I don't have a labor code to read the times so technically I have to do it on my own time and/or just give it a glance which is what I do normally. I'm doing this survey during my lunch.

6. The Tower Times (online and/or print) offers a balanced amount of information (i.e. news and information from a wide range of the District).

 Find	1. When it is an online publication I don't seem to have the time to read it, but when I get the printed form I take the time to read through it.	Wed, 10/3/07 11:09 AM
 Find	2. I like having a periodic hard copy version of the Tower Times. It is easy to keep and reference with the other back issues. I like to read something I can hold.	Tue, 9/25/07 6:19 AM
 Find	3. I don't have time to read it at work so I like the fact I can take it home and show others.	Mon, 9/10/07 8:11 AM
 Find	4. Online is good but I need an email reminder with a link to remember to go look at it. Also, I have noticed that when I have followed the link there is maybe two new stories and then all the old stuff still there. The online should be just like a print version, just the stories for that issue. If a person wants to look at previous issues, then there should be a button for that.	Wed, 9/5/07 12:43 PM
 Find	5. i think you had more information porovided in the new print. also had updates on some past storys	Wed, 9/5/07 12:24 PM
 Find	6. No need to kill trees when anyone can access the TT online.	Tue, 8/21/07 11:29 AM
 Find	7. Let's save some paper.	Mon, 8/20/07 8:55 AM
 Find	8. Very attractive layout and the overall appearance is creative and eye-catching.	Sat, 8/18/07 6:59 AM
 Find	9. We put the print copies on a table in the office for visitors (public) to read.	Fri, 8/17/07 4:18 PM
 Find	10. I rarely have or take the time to read the publication on line.	Fri, 8/17/07 3:59 PM
 Find	11. I think the monthly print is only necessary during mmonths which have several exciting things happening. Not sure how you'd regulate that though. Quarterly seems awfully distant.	Fri, 8/17/07 11:28 AM
 Find	12. I really prefer the print format as I seem to have too much to read online as it is. It is nice to kick back and browse through something that I can pick up and take with me to read at those odd and rare moments when I don't have anything else pressing to do.	Fri, 8/17/07 10:15 AM
 Find	13. None	Fri, 8/17/07 8:38 AM
 Find	14. Not sure if quarterly printed publications are the right answer but I do think the District needs a print format of the Tower Times. Mainly because some people may read things better on hardcopy.	Thu, 8/16/07 3:49 PM
 Find	15. Need to make a better effort to make available to field people. I haven't seen a tower times for about a year and a half!!!!	Thu, 8/16/07 3:27 PM
 Find	16. Enjoy the articles and the fact that you use information from the field sites for your articles.	Thu, 8/16/07 11:43 AM
 Find	17. There are some of us that , if we are lucky, get to use a computer maybe, one a week!!!	Thu, 8/16/07 7:01 AM
 Find	18. I do like receiving a monthly print, but would be happy with just an online publication. It would be nice to have an option of receiving a printed version upon request.	Wed, 8/15/07 2:05 PM

 Find 1. If I have time I look at it. The articles are kind of light and don't have much info that really is applicable to my job which is ok other than when I get busy I am likely to delete and not look at the latest stories.	Wed, 9/5/07 12:43 PM
 Find 2. Good information. Certainly not all that we need to know, but good.	Mon, 8/20/07 8:55 AM
 Find 3. None	Fri, 8/17/07 8:38 AM
 Find 4. There could be more project and program information to help inform the workforce about all the projects taking place in the district.	Thu, 8/16/07 3:49 PM
 Find 5. Most of the time it doesn't get printed.	Thu, 8/16/07 11:43 AM

 Find 1. It seems the Times has longer articles and fewer whereas I prefer shorter articles and more of them.	Wed, 9/5/07 12:43 PM
 Find 2. Many of us are in positions where we can't spend much time on the computer. The hard copy magazine is better for us.	Thu, 8/23/07 12:13 AM
 Find 3. I don't read it on line enough times to know.	Fri, 8/17/07 3:59 PM
 Find 4. I hardly ever look at the online version.	Fri, 8/17/07 10:15 AM
 Find 5. I would like to see a monthly feature focusing on developing leadership or some other career development section.	Thu, 8/16/07 3:49 PM
 Find 6. field personnel don't all have access to Internet	Wed, 8/15/07 4:39 PM
 Find 7. Great for District awareness	Wed, 8/15/07 3:09 PM
 Find 8. Not user friendly for the new information. Looks like the same old information all the time. I can't tell what is new and what is the old stuff.	Wed, 8/15/07 1:59 PM

 Find 1. Website too difficult to follow, would prefer a .PDF of each issue	Wed, 10/3/07 9:29 AM
 Find 2. I don't think it has been promoted as an "information gateway" unlike AKO. People don't know about it.	Fri, 9/21/07 10:09 AM
 Find 3. I just don't see the Times as an information gateway. It seems to just be a neighborly lighter information sort of thing.	Wed, 9/5/07 12:43 PM
 Find 4. The page navigation is a little cumbersome.	Sat, 9/1/07 8:41 AM
 Find 5. You could have a few hard copies available for those who wish to save articles/pictures, etc., upon request. Save the District some money!	Tue, 8/21/07 11:29 AM
 Find 6. Again, I hardly ever look at the online version. I don't have the time.	Fri, 8/17/07 10:15 AM
 Find 7. None	Fri, 8/17/07 8:38 AM
 Find 8. At times I feel like the online version of the Tower Times is cluttered and very hard to find exactly what you want. I think better organization of user navigation would really make it a successful information gateway.	Thu, 8/16/07 3:49 PM
 Find 9. It is one of many sources of information. I really like the daily news clips.	Wed, 8/15/07 3:24 PM
 Find 10. Google is an "information gateway." Tower Times Online is a monthly publication.	Wed, 8/15/07 2:03 PM

 Find	1. All publications are unidirectional. Improving communications requires a system with multiple feedback loops.	Wed, 10/3/07 9:52 AM
 Find	2. It could if it was promoted well.	Fri, 9/21/07 10:09 AM
 Find	3. Reading the Times is an option and I don't have a labor code to read the times so technically I have to do it on my own time and/or just give it a glance which is what I do normally. I'm doing this survey during my lunch.	Wed, 9/5/07 12:43 PM
 Find	4. Not timely enough to be the key source. I also don't like having to go somewhere to find the key info-it should be sent to me.	Fri, 8/17/07 4:18 PM
 Find	5. More "Partnership Council" meetings minutes and "Brown Bag" lunches should be done.	Fri, 8/17/07 8:38 AM
 Find	6. What a good way to share information with fellow employees. The executive leadership should use the Tower Times to communciate goals and direction.	Thu, 8/16/07 3:49 PM
 Find	7. It cannot be used as a source of information if it is not made available to everyone!!!!!!	Thu, 8/16/07 3:27 PM
 Find	8. We need to continue with e-mails on hot topics from the front office to the work force. The weekly SITREP and Command and Staff notes are good too.	Wed, 8/15/07 3:24 PM
 Find	9. Many people (myself included) do not have time to read this publication. Right now bathroom breaks are the only real chance to see articles of interest. This publication is a GREAT way to increase District awareness, connectedness, and morale. Yet there is no time or funding for this. It would be so great to be encouraged by senior leadership to spend perhaps 30 min a week (or even per pay period) down in the library reading up on district news (SitReps, SigActs and Tower Times) - and not have to worry about being scolded by direct supervisors for charging to overhead. I'm not sure if this could be done, but it would increase District awareness and employee morale.	Wed, 8/15/07 3:09 PM
 Find	10. Not timely enough. It's just interesting reading.	Wed, 8/15/07 2:40 PM
 Find	11. Good potential here.	Wed, 8/15/07 2:03 PM
