Description

The center span of the Route 20 Bridge over the Spoon River is blocked by debris and drift sand, which have accreted over a period of years. Because of this blockage the hydraulic capacity of the bridge is reduced and flows are directed through the remaining spans. These higher than anticipated flows are causing both channel and bank erosion.

In a letter dated May 25, 2004 the Knox County. IL Highway Department requested Corps assistance with the removal of a blockage upstream of the Rte. 20 Bridge. On January 24, 2005 representatives of the county confirmed their desire for Corps assistance with this undertaking.
