

Make Your Summer Camping Reservations Now

To reserve the best campsites at Corps of Engineers' campgrounds for the summer holidays, make your reservations now. For reservations, call 1-877-444-6777 or visit the web at www.reserveusa.com.

The National Recreation Reservation™ System can book your reservations at more than 1,700 Corps of Engineers campgrounds nationwide.

Reservations can be made 240 days in advance. Group sites can be reserved 360 days in advance. Service users should be prepared to pay for their entire stay at the time the reservation is made. Visa, MasterCard, American Express and Discover Cards are accepted. Telephone reservations can be made seven days a week between 9 a.m. and 6 p.m.

Local Corps campgrounds where reservations can be made include Lake Red Rock, Saylorville Lake and Coralville Lake, as well as sites along the Mississippi River, including Shady Creek, Clark's Ferry, Blanding Landing, Fisherman's Corner, and Thomson Causeway. Sites can also be reserved at Grant River in Wisconsin.

For those who prefer to camp without reservations, it is not necessary to reserve sites at each campground. The Corps still maintains first-come, first-serve sites at all facilities.

For more information, contact Sue Clevensine at 309-794-5839.
